

Data Analytics Crossword Challenge!

Down:

1. An off-premise online storage solution for managing large amounts of data
2. A device for accurately measuring energy consumption at
4. A virtual creation or interpretation of a building or other physical asset

Across:

3. An interconnected web of end points
5. Techniques for controlling services to a building
6. A network for communicating with physical devices and sensors
7. Devices for gathering data or information on a building or building service
8. Nodes on a mesh network to which sensors and other devices connect
9. A process of making sense of information

